

.NET DEVELOPER BRIDGING PROGRAM

Humber offers a 24-week bridging program for internationally trained IT professionals with education and experience in computer programming. This program is designed to provide participants with the advanced concepts, skills and the knowledge required to work as .NET Solutions Developers.

Our graduates have secured jobs as Software Developers, Systems Programmers and Business Analysts within six months of graduation.

The program will provide you with the technical skills, as well as the soft skills, currently being demanded by IT employers in Canada.

During the program, you will also have access to both, an Employment Advisor and a Job Developer, to ensure that you make the necessary connections to secure a job in this sector.
